Trapping Matters Workshop

UW-Stevens Point, Stevens Point, WI

Saturday, September 24, 2016

9:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Many wildlife professionals shy away from trapping-related discussions, because it is considered a controversial wildlife management technique. Yet, it is essential that wildlife professionals understand the diverse ways that regulated trapping provides environmental & social benefits. This workshop will help participants understand & better communicate the benefits of regulated trapping to wildlife management. Participants will leave with scientifically sound information & be trained in skills that will make them effective communicators on this subject.

This workshop consists of 3 main sections:

1. Communications Skills:

- The importance of human dimension studies & messages related to regulated trapping.
- How the media works & what they expect of you in an interview situation.
- How you can use media to educate the public & key messages to use with the media about trapping.
- Open dialog & hands-on activities will be used to develop & improve communication skills & make the experiences interactive and of high professional value for attendees.

2. Traps & Trapping Techniques:

- Hands-on demonstrations of trap-types and how they work.

3. Best Management Practices for Trapping & Furbearer Management:

- The research behind humane trapping and how regulated trapping is used in wildlife management.

- Workshop qualifies for 7 credit hours (Category 1 towards TWS certification & professional development)
