Guidelines

To be eligible, an individual's paper/poster first must be accepted for presentation by the Program Committee (for contributed papers and posters) or the organizer of a TWS-sanctioned symposium or special poster session. Applicants must meet the following eligibility standards:

1. Be a member of The Wildlife Society or a visitor sponsored by a TWS member in good standing
2. Be a member of the International Wildlife Management Working Group
3. Be a senior author and presenter of an accepted paper or poster
4. Preference will be given to students presenting topics related to the working group's overall mission.

Applicants must submit the following:

1. Completed application form
2. Abstract of paper or poster
3. Letter of abstract acceptance
4. Statement that addresses the following:
 - a. Description of work to be presented and its significance in clear, precise terms.
 - b. How will support from an IWMWG travel grant and attending the TWS conference aid in your professional development?
 - c. In addition to the budget, provide a statement of financial need and efforts to secure other funds.

Failure to provide all requested materials will disqualify the applicant.

Please submit the completed application form along with extra budget information as needed with the following file name: LastnameFirstname_TWS IWMWGTravelGrantApplicationForm2017.pdf

The IWMWG deadline for travel applications is 15 August, 2017.
