

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TRAVEL AWARD
2017 Annual Meeting – Albuquerque, New Mexico

Deadline for application submission: August 15, 2017

One (1) Travel Grant of $500

The Wyoming Chapter of The Wildlife Society is pleased to announce the availability of a travel award for professional members in association with to the upcoming TWS Annual Meeting in Albuquerque, New Mexico. This meeting will be September 23-27, 2017 and is designed to help professionals further their knowledge of wildlife research trends and networking. One (1) award will provide $500 for travel and per diem to attend the annual meeting and registration for a workshop of your choice.

To be eligible, applicants must be a professional member of WY-TWS at the time of application. Consideration will be given to professionals whose work is complementary to commitment of WY-TWS to manage, conserve, and study wildlife populations and habitats. Our members support management actions resulting from careful consideration and use of accurate scientific information.

There is also a requirement that you must register and attend a workshop of your choice and report back to the WyTWS board what you attended and how it will benefit you professionally.

Each applicant must submit the following electronically:

1. Completed typed application form;
2. A typed one-paragraph narrative describing how this scholarship would further your career/ability as a wildlife professional;
3. A typed one-paragraph narrative explaining why you should receive a WY-TWS Professional Development Travel Award.

Typed applications and all requested material must be submitted electronically by August 15, 2017 to
