

Colorado Chapter of the Wildlife Society and Turner Endangered Species Fund
Gray Wolf Conservation and Management Symposium
15 February 2017, Fort Collins, CO

Time	Speaker and Affiliation	Presentation
8:30	Tony Gurzick, CCTWS	Opening remarks
8:40 BIO	Mike Phillips, TEF Mike.phillips@tedturner.com	History and future of wolf recovery in the U.S. (abstract)
9:05 BIO	Doug Smith, National Park Service Doug_smith@nps.gov	Yellowstone wolves: ecosystem saviors? If so, how exportable? (abstract)
9:30 BIO	Joel Berger, Colorado State University Joel.berger@colostate.edu jberger@wcs.org	Ecological and biodiversity implications of wolf reintroduction (abstract)
9:55 BIO	Michael Thabault, USFWS Michael_thabault@fws.gov	Current distribution and legal status of wolves in North America (no abstract)
10:20	Break
10:45 BIO	Barry Noon, Colorado State University Barry.noon@colostate.edu	Gray wolf habitat in Colorado: biological and social characteristics (abstract)
11:10 BIO	Ken Mills and Dan Thompson, Wyoming Game and Fish Kenneth.mills@wyo.gov Daniel.thompson@wyo.gov	Wolf recovery, conservation, and management in Wyoming: lessons learned (abstract)
11:35 BIO	Carter Niemeyer, USFWS (retired), Author of Wolf Land and Wolfer carterandjennyniemeyer@gmail.com	Wolves and livestock in the Northern Rockies: implications for Colorado (abstract)
12:00 BIO	Avery Shawler, Wood River Wolf Project Avery.shawler@gmail.com	Wolf-livestock coexistence strategies: The Wood River Wolf Project in Central Idaho (abstract)
12:25	LUNCH – 12:25-2:00 pm
2:00 BIO	Stewart Breck, USDA National Wildlife Research Center, Wildlife Services Stewart.w.breck@aphis.usda.gov	Overview of wolf conflict resolution (abstract)
2:25 BIO	Jim Hammill, Michigan DNR (retired), Iron Range Consulting & Services Inc. jimhammill@hughes.net	Hunting and trapping as tools for wolf management (abstract)
2:50 BIO	Richard Reading, Okavango Research Institute, University of Botswana; Butterfly Pavilion; University of Denver Rich_reading@hotmail.com rpreading@gmail.com	Attitudes and values toward wolf recovery in Colorado (abstract)
3:15	Break
3:40 BIO	Jeremy Bruskotter, Ohio State University bruskotter.9@osu.edu	Factors impacting human tolerance for large carnivores: insights from psychology (abstract)
4:05 BIO	Dave Mech, University of Minnesota Mechx002@umn.edu	Wolf/human interactions: implications for restoration (abstract)
4:30 BIO	Philip Cafaro, Colorado State University Philip.cafaro@colostate.edu	The moral case for wolf reintroductions (abstract)
4:55		Closing Remarks