THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY

Founded in 1937 as The Society of Wildlife Specialists, The Wildlife Society has evolved into an international nonprofit organization of professional wildlife ecologists and managers. Members number over 10,000 from 40 different countries, and include administrators, biologists, conservation officers, educators, managers and researchers.

The objectives of TWS are to:

1. Promote sound stewardship of wildlife resources and the environments upon which wildlife and humans depend;
2. Undertake an active role in preventing human-induced environmental degradation;
3. Increase awareness and appreciation of wildlife values; and
4. Seek the highest standards in all activities of the wildlife profession.

CENTRAL MOUNTAINS AND PLAINS SECTION OF THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY

The Central Mountains and Plains Section (CMPS) was initiated on February 2, 1954 to promote networking, cooperative efforts, and information exchange among wildlife professionals and TWS Chapters in our region. The CMPS region encompasses seven states—CO, KS, NE, ND, SD, UT, and WY. The Annual Section Meeting is hosted each year by one of the member states. A

CMPS newsletter is published three times per year (spring, summer, and fall/winter) and made available electronically to all Section members. A Student Travel Grant is available to assist students wishing to travel to TWS Annual Conferences. A Professional Achievement Award and a Citizen's Conservation Achievement Award are presented annually. The CMPS Mission Statement, Objectives, bylaws, Executive Board members, travel grant and awards information, past newsletters, Annual Board Meeting minutes, and more are available on the CMPS website.

SOUTH DAKOTA CHAPTER OF THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY

The South Dakota Chapter of TWS (SDTWS) was initiated on February 19, 1966 with 56 charter members. SDTWS is affiliated with the Central Mountains and Plains Section, one of eight subdivisions of TWS. The full membership of SDTWS meets annually in the spring to exchange scientific information through presented papers, debate current issues in wildlife management and land use, and conduct Chapter business. The Chapter's Executive Board of Directors, consisting of President, Past-President, President-Elect, Secretary-Treasurer, and two standing Board Members, meets at least four times each year to discuss issues that do not require full Chapter approval. The Chapter also communicates with its members through a newsletter, The Prairie Voice, published within 30 days of Executive Board meetings. SDTWS has a current membership of 171 people interested in the welfare of South Dakota wildlife.
