

The Minnesota Chapter of The Wildlife Society

presents

Ecology and Management of Minnesota's Migrants

Anticipated topics:

Neotropical migratory bird ecology

Monarch Joint Venture

Unravelling mysteries of the common loon

Determining the migration pattern and management needs of golden eagles

Habitat alteration effects on fish migration

(During the boat tour of the Mississippi River)

Wednesday September 13th, 2017 9:00 am-4:30 pm
(8:30 am registration)

with an optional half day bluff prairie tour on September 14th 8:00 am-12:00 pm.

Winona County Historical Society, 160 Johnson Street
Winona, Minnesota, 55987

Registration: $10 (students), $15 (MNTWS members), $20 (non-members)

Please see our website (<http://wildlife.org/mn/>) for more information.