The Wyoming Chapter of The Wildlife Society is pleased to announce the availability of one travel award of $500 available to professional members to be used for eligible travel, per diem, and registration cost for a workshop of your choice for the upcoming TWS annual meeting (September 29 - October 3, 2019 in Reno, Nevada).

Eligibility/Requirements:
- To be eligible, applicants must be a professional member of WY-TWS at the time of application.*
- Consideration will be given to professionals whose work is complementary to the commitment of WY-TWS to manage, conserve, and study wildlife populations and habitats. Our members support management actions resulting from careful consideration and use of accurate scientific information.
- Awardees must register and attend a workshop of their choice, and report to the WY-TWS board the name of the workshop attended and how it will benefit you professionally.

Application Components:
Applicants must submit the following materials electronically:
1. Completed application form
2. A one-paragraph description of how this scholarship would further your skills as a wildlife professional
3. A one-paragraph description of why you should receive this award.

Submission information
- Deadline: September 1, 2019. Please send completed applications with all materials in one file to Anika Mahoney at anikamahoney@gmail.com. Include “WY-TWS Professional Development Travel Award” in the subject line. Applicants will receive an e-mail acknowledging receipt of their application. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- Awardees will be notified by September 15, 2019.
