Subject: Idaho Chapter of The Wildlife Society 2020 Annual Scholarship

The Idaho Chapter of The Wildlife Society is currently accepting applications for its 2021 Annual Student Scholarships. The purpose of the scholarships is to assist with college education costs for undergraduate and graduate students whose professional goals support the mission and objectives of The Wildlife Society. ICTWS is offering a $1500 scholarship for undergraduate students, $2000 scholarship for a M.S. student, and $2000 scholarship for a PhD candidate. Enclosed please find the necessary materials to apply. Application materials may also be found on the Idaho Chapter “Resources” page hosted on The Wildlife Society website (<https://wildlife.org/idaho-chapter/resources/>).

Please disseminate and promote this scholarship opportunity to prospective students.
