

THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY WEBINAR SERIES

Featuring
TWS
Working Groups

LOOKING BACK AT OUR FIRST YEAR

Thank you to TWS Working Groups for providing such amazing content and to our thousands of viewers for helping support the work of wildlife professionals. We've learned so much in our first year of hosting webinars and hope you have too. We look forward to another year of discovery as we continue to explore the hottest topics in wildlife science and conservation with new webinars offered monthly. Click on an image below to view webinars from the past year and visit wildlife.org to see our list of upcoming webinars.

MAY
2021

WILDLIFE TOXICOLOGY

*PFAS Contamination:
What's this mean for wildlife management?*

MOLECULAR ECOLOGY

*Choose your Own
Adventure in Molecular Ecology*

TWS VISION

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion: Vision and Opportunities

WILDLIFE DISEASES

One Health for Wildlife

NUTRITIONAL ECOLOGY

*Understanding and Addressing Needs of Wildlife
Professionals in Nutritional
Ecology*

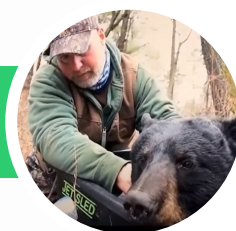

RENEWABLE ENERGY

*The Intersection of Climate Change,
Renewable Energy, and Wildlife Conservation*

FORESTRY & WILDLIFE

Sustainable Forest Management and Wildlife: Challenges and Opportunities

HUNTING, TRAPPING, & CONSERVATION

*Irreplaceable Conservation
Funding: A Primer on the Wildlife Restoration Act*

CONSERVATION EDUCATION & OUTREACH

Faces of Outreach

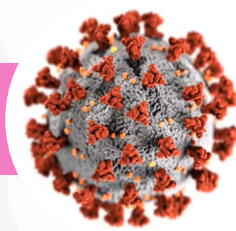

INVASIVE SPECIES

What the "Lacey Act" is and isn't and how we use it to prevent invasions of Injurious Wildlife

INTERNATIONAL / STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

*Going Global: The Role of TWS International Student
Chapters Going Forward*

WILDLIFE DISEASES

The Federal 411 on SARS-CoV-2 and Wildlife

MAY 2022