

The San Joaquin Valley Chapter of The Wildlife Society (TWS) offers up to 5 travel grants to cover registration, travel, and lodging costs for Annual TWS Western Section Conferences for Chapter members! These annual meetings are a fantastic opportunity to attend, with many networking and educational opportunities. If you are interested in applying, please submit the following qualifications to Lori Bono at lori.bono@wildlife.ca.gov (Due date depends on year and timing of meeting):

1. Be a current San Joaquin Valley Chapter member (only 5 bucks to join);
2. Submit proof you are a current student or have graduated within the last three years (ex. school transcripts);
3. Submit a brief summary of yourself;
4. Apply by announced deadline (to be determined); and
5. Keep all receipts for reimbursement (i.e. registration, lodging, and gas).
