

Alabama Chapter of The Wildlife Society

Lifetime Achievement Award

Award Information, Criteria and Nominating Process

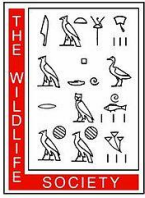

The Chapter's "Lifetime Achievement Award" is presented to wildlife professionals, who in the opinion of the ACTWS Awards Committee have made significant impacts over their career to the field of wildlife management in Alabama. Each award will consist of a certificate and recognition at the Chapter's annual meeting.

Nominations must be submitted by an ACTWS member. Nominations should include information on the candidate's background such as education, training, career accomplishments, and the achievement for which the nomination is being submitted. As much information as practical within the space constraints should be furnished to aid the Committee during the selection process. Nomination guidelines are:

1. Nominee and nominator must be a current member of ACTWS.
2. Nominee must have worked in the wildlife management arena for at least 20 years.
3. Nominations should be submitted for a career of work with significant impacts on wildlife management in Alabama.
4. Nominations should consist of a short (< 2,000 words) description of the achievements for which the nomination is being made. Achievements can be related to research, management, administration or education.
5. Nominations must contain the nominee and nominator's full name, address, email address and phone number.
6. Two additional references or letters of support should also be submitted along with nomination form to provide insights of the nominee's personal character and professional accomplishments.

Nominations and the deadlines will be advertised through the ACTWS communications network prior to each annual meeting. Due to the prestigious nature of the award, it is not expected that it will be awarded annually, although nominations could be submitted at any time.

Nominations should be submitted to jefbaker@southernco.com by COB on the deadline. A committee will evaluate each nomination to determine suitability as a recipient for this prestigious award.
